Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 26, 2009, the Board of Directors of Oxford Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) elected Mr. John R. Holder to fill an existing Class II vacancy on the Company’s Board of Directors. Mr. Holder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holder Properties, Inc., a privately held full-service commercial real estate developer, was recommended to the Company’s Board of Directors by its Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Holder and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Holder was appointed as a director. The Company’s Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Holder does not have any material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) and, as a result, is independent. In making this determination, the Company’s Board of Directors considered all relevant facts and circumstances known to it, including the corporate governance listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. There are no transactions in which Mr. Holder has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Immediately following his election to the Company’s Board of Directors, Mr. Holder was appointed to serve as a member of the Audit Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors.

For service as a non-employee director during the period between the Company’s 2008 and 2009 annual meetings of shareholders, Mr. Holder will receive (i) an annual cash retainer of $30,000, prorated for the portion of such time during which he serves as a director; (ii) an annual stock retainer of $30,000 (subject to a limited vesting period expiring as of the date of the Company’s 2009 annual meeting of shareholders), prorated for the portion of such time during which he serves as a director; and (iii) a $1,250 meeting fee for each meeting of the Company’s Board of Directors or Audit Committee attended.
